

Role Models

LESSON 2

1. Listen to the music and order the pictures. Then, tell a partner who your favorite role model is.

2. Read the statements and bet between 10 and 100 points with a partner. Then, listen to check the answers.

Statement	Bet	Loss	Gain
1. By 1810, Bolívar had already invested part of his fortune to finance the revolution.
2. While Chespirito was defining a way to criticize the unrealistic image of superheroes, he came up with the idea of El Chapulín Colorado .
3. Gabriel García Márquez was planning to write a book about Bolívar when he decided to write The General in His Labyrinth .
4. By 1995, JLo hadn't succeeded as an entrepreneur because she hadn't opened her store, Sweetface Fashion Company , yet.

3. Listen to the second part of the program and complete the chart.

Character Simón Bolívar
Mission Set _____
Vision Provide _____ for all his fellow countrymen
Values _____, _____, equality
Intelligences Intrapersonal, _____, _____

Listening Strategy

Listen to something several times to confirm information and understand details.

Character JLo
Mission Make business _____ in different areas
Vision Become the _____ entrepreneur
Values _____, _____, responsibility
Intelligences Kinesthetic, _____, _____

4. Complete the following text. Use the Word Bank.

People who have a vision generally reach their goals. That was the case of Gabriel García Márquez. His magic _____ reflected his values and his vision for life. By 1980, he hadn't received his Nobel Prize yet, but he had already assumed a _____ vision of what was happening in his country. He had understood his _____ as a writer.

Word Bank

critical responsibility realism

Reflect on Grammar

The Past Progressive Tense

It is used to report events in progress in the past. In 1810 Bolívar was carrying out his campaigning.

The Past Perfect Tense (negative statements)

By 1980, Gabriel García Márquez hadn't received his Nobel prize yet.